What did you miss this week?

Erdem Ankarali, Erdem Fitness, went over burnout and the impacts it can have on your mind and body. Burnout can cause us to feel guilty. This guilt can start out small and then spiral into more. If you have a plan for yourself and fall short one day, that's okay! Erdem's fitness and nutrition program has guilt free habits to help you maintain a healthy body and mind. Erdem loves to work with busy people and can accommodate virtually any schedule.

Matt Yost, Yost Kitchen & Bath, gave the group insight on different types of flooring his company can install. Laminate, LVP (luxury vinyl plank), and wood (solid or engineered) each have their own benefits. LVP is completely waterproof which makes it a great choice for bathrooms or mud rooms. While solid wood is easier to perform maintenance on, engineered wood is slightly cheaper and performs better. Getting your kitchen and bath redone is more than just the appliances!
